

Online safety within fostering households

FACILITATORS: ASTELL EVANS & CHARLENE CLOTWORTHY

The course explores online safety and covers:

- Ways to risk assess children and young people's use the internet and technology within the fostering household
- Methods related to monitoring the risks children take online
- Approaches involved in safeguarding children and young people from harmful online content
- Methods to support children and young peoples' online activities
- Foster carers role modelling safe and appropriate behaviour when using technology

Learning outcome (1.1)

1. Understand principles for e-safety

1.1: Explain the risks and possible consequences for children and young people from:

- social networking
- internet use
- buying and selling online
- electronic communication devices

Learning outcome (1.2)

1. Understand principles for e-safety

1.2 Describe ways of reducing risk to children and young people from:

- social networking
- internet use
- buying and selling online
- electronic communication devices

TSD Standards reference link

Safeguarding Children and Young People

- 6.3 a Understand the different ways in which children and young people can be harmed by adults, other children and young people including the internet.
- 6.3 b Understand the different ways in which children and young people can be placed at risk